GENDER POLICY

2.1.4. Gender Policy

EFICOR'S GENDER POLICY

EFICOR is committed to promote an environment that is just, equitable and of mutual respect and cooperation between women and men at all levels in the organisation and in its service.

A. DEFINITION OF GENDER

Gender refers to the social attributes and opportunities associated with being male and female and the relationships between women and men and girls and boys, as well as the relations between women and those between men. These attributes, opportunities, and relationships are socially constructed and are learned through socialization processes. They are context/ time-specific and changeable. Gender determines what is expected, allowed and valued in a woman or a man in a given context.

B. BELIEFS

I. The Source of our Principles and practices

1. Our understanding, principles and practices on gender are guided by the Bible.
2. In specific instances, we stand to benefit by use of reason and law.
3. Our involvement will be based on gender specific data, the voices of different groups in a community (women, men, girls and boys) and researched data.

II. Our Values

1. We believe that women and men are created in the image of God and are equally valued by God.
2. We believe that we should reflect this equality in our structures and involvement.
3. We believe that the gospel of Jesus Christ liberates women and men to minister at all levels in church and society.
4. We value strong families¹ with mutual love and respect among adults and towards children.

IV. EFICOR Promoting Equality and Mutuality in Homes

The most serious abuses of women and girls often occur in homes. Therefore we take it as our God-given duty to promote equality and mutuality in homes. We will seek to empower² them.

EFICOR will:

1. Teach women and men especially among the families of our staff to make decisions that affect their lives at home and work with equality and mutuality. Conscious effort will be made to teach on gender issues during Senior Management staff/spiritual mentors' visit to the field, Staff Retreat in both headquarters and field, and Staff Family Conference.
2. Ensure that staff comply with EFICOR's zero tolerance policy with respect to domestic violence.
3. Analyse with separated data on women and men in home and community as part of its programme planning for implementation and evaluation.
4. Encourage both parents to work at building a stable, loving environment for both girls and boys, giving equal encouragement and opportunities to girls and boys in education, health and personal development.
5. Encourage both women and men to shoulder domestic and public duties.
6. Value life skills developed in the home and the community.
